

BSB41015 Certificate IV in Human Resources

National ID: BSB41015 | State ID: AVT3

About this course

Shape the culture of an organisation with a career in human resources.

The Certificate IV in Human Resources provides participants with the skills to work in a range of support positions within human resources management.

In smaller companies, graduates may work across all human resources functional areas and in larger companies, graduates may be assigned responsibilities in units or business areas focused on discrete human resources functions, such as remuneration, workforce planning or human resources information systems.

Throughout this course, participants will learn how to:

- Review human resources functions
- Recruit, select and induct staff
- Support performance management processes
- Implement industrial relations procedures

This course is available at other campus locations upon request.
