

BSB10115 Certificate I in Business

National ID: BSB10115 | State ID: AVU7

About this course

Let's begin with the business basics.

The Certificate I in Business is an entry-level course suitable for those seeking an introduction into business and office work. Participants will develop basic skills and knowledge to undertake a variety of administration tasks.

Participants will learn how to:

- Operate a personal computer and/or other digital device
- Create letters, flyers, posters and other business documents
- Use a photocopier, printers, scanners, binders, laminators and back up devices
- Communicate in a business environment
- Organise files and folders on their devices

The units that form the Certificate I in Business act as a foundation for many other qualifications in business, finance, tourism, community services, hospitality and aged care, among others.

This course is available at other campus locations upon request.
