

CUA30915 Certificate III in Music Industry

National ID: CUA30915 | State ID: AZK9

About this course

The music industry has a rich history in the North West providing a tool for expression, social and emotional well-being, and cultural identity.

The Certificate III in Music Industry provides students with an opportunity to enhance their musical performance and production abilities. This course can be studied face-to-face or completely online, from the comfort of your own home!

This course is suitable for participants who have mastered basic instrumental skills and are interested in building their career in the music industry. Students will develop their songwriting skills, master stagecraft and build their music business skills.

Throughout this course, students will:

- Develop their skills as a musician
- Build their performance craft
- Develop music industry skills

Students studying face-to-face will also:

- Build sound engineering skills in live and studio settings
- Write original songs

- Make a music demo recording of their original work
- Build their ensemble skills, working with fellow students to rehearse and perform music
- Create basic marketing material to kick-start their career

This course is available at other campus locations upon request.
