

SIT30116 Certificate III in Tourism

National ID: SIT30116 | State ID: AZV7

About this course

Seeking a career that can take you places? A qualification in the tourism industry could land you employment anywhere in the world!

The Certificate III in Tourism provides a pathway to work in a range of tourism industry sectors as a tour guide, tourism services coordinator, booking agent, sales consultant and much more. The majority of this course is self-paced via our online learning platform.

Students will work through the learning material and then complete the set tasks and activities outlined. Assessment is conducted by knowledge questions and practical tasks or projects. These may be assessed in the workplace or on campus through a real or simulated activity.

An essential part of this course is to undertake a work placement in the industry. If you are not already working in the industry, our lecturers can assist in finding you a work placement. The work placement chosen must meet the requirements of the course.

This course is available at other campus locations upon request.
