

IAD23 Introductory Education Skill Set

National ID: IAD23 | State ID: IAD23

About this course

Start your educational journey today.

The Introductory Education Skill Set enables participants to grow their skills in communication, numeracy, technology, innovation and creation.

The course has been designed to encourage students to identify their own interests, purpose and position in the community, and prepare for further study or employment. Where required, students will have access to an Aboriginal student mentor in the class.

The units delivered in this course contribute to the Certificate I in Gaining Access to Training and Employment, enabling participants to continue on and gain a nationally recognised qualification if they wish.

Join us on Thursdays from 8.30am - 3.00pm!

Please note: The course will not run over school holidays and public holidays.
