Help shape the strategic direction of training in Western Australia

The Minister for Education and Training is looking for people with effective leadership and strategic thinking skills and the ability to work collegiately within the TAFE sector to help shape training to meet future industry and community needs throughout Western Australia.

If you have these skills, knowledge of vocational education and training, experience in community and industry engagement, and a record of service to industry or the community, express your interest now.

Under the Vocational Education and Training Act 1996, Governing Councils play a key role in the strategic management of TAFE Colleges within the Western Australian Government policy framework.

Members of Governing Councils are remunerated for their services.

Expressions of interest (EOI) for membership of North Regional TAFE Governing Council are invited.

The McGowan Government is committed to increasing the representation of women on Government boards and committees. Women are encouraged to apply for Governing Council membership, or alternatively, register with OnBoardWA at www.onboardwa.jobs.wa.gov.au to express their interest.

Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people; and people from culturally diverse backgrounds are also encouraged to apply.
